Forecast For London & Southeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Monday 08 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Very cold with outbreaks of snow in the east.

This Evening and Tonight:
Largely cloudy with further outbreaks of snow. These will primarily be across eastern parts, with the west of the region remaining predominantly dry. It will feel very cold with brisk easterly winds, a hard frost and some patchy ice. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Tuesday:
Remaining very cold with strong easterly winds and a few wintry showers, most likely across the north and east of the region. However, some brightness may develop in-between the showers. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Sunny spells and a few snow showers Wednesday. Dry and bright Thursday, but cloudy and windy Friday with snow possible in the west. Bitterly cold with frost and icy patches.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.